MANY DIFFERENT PEOPLE

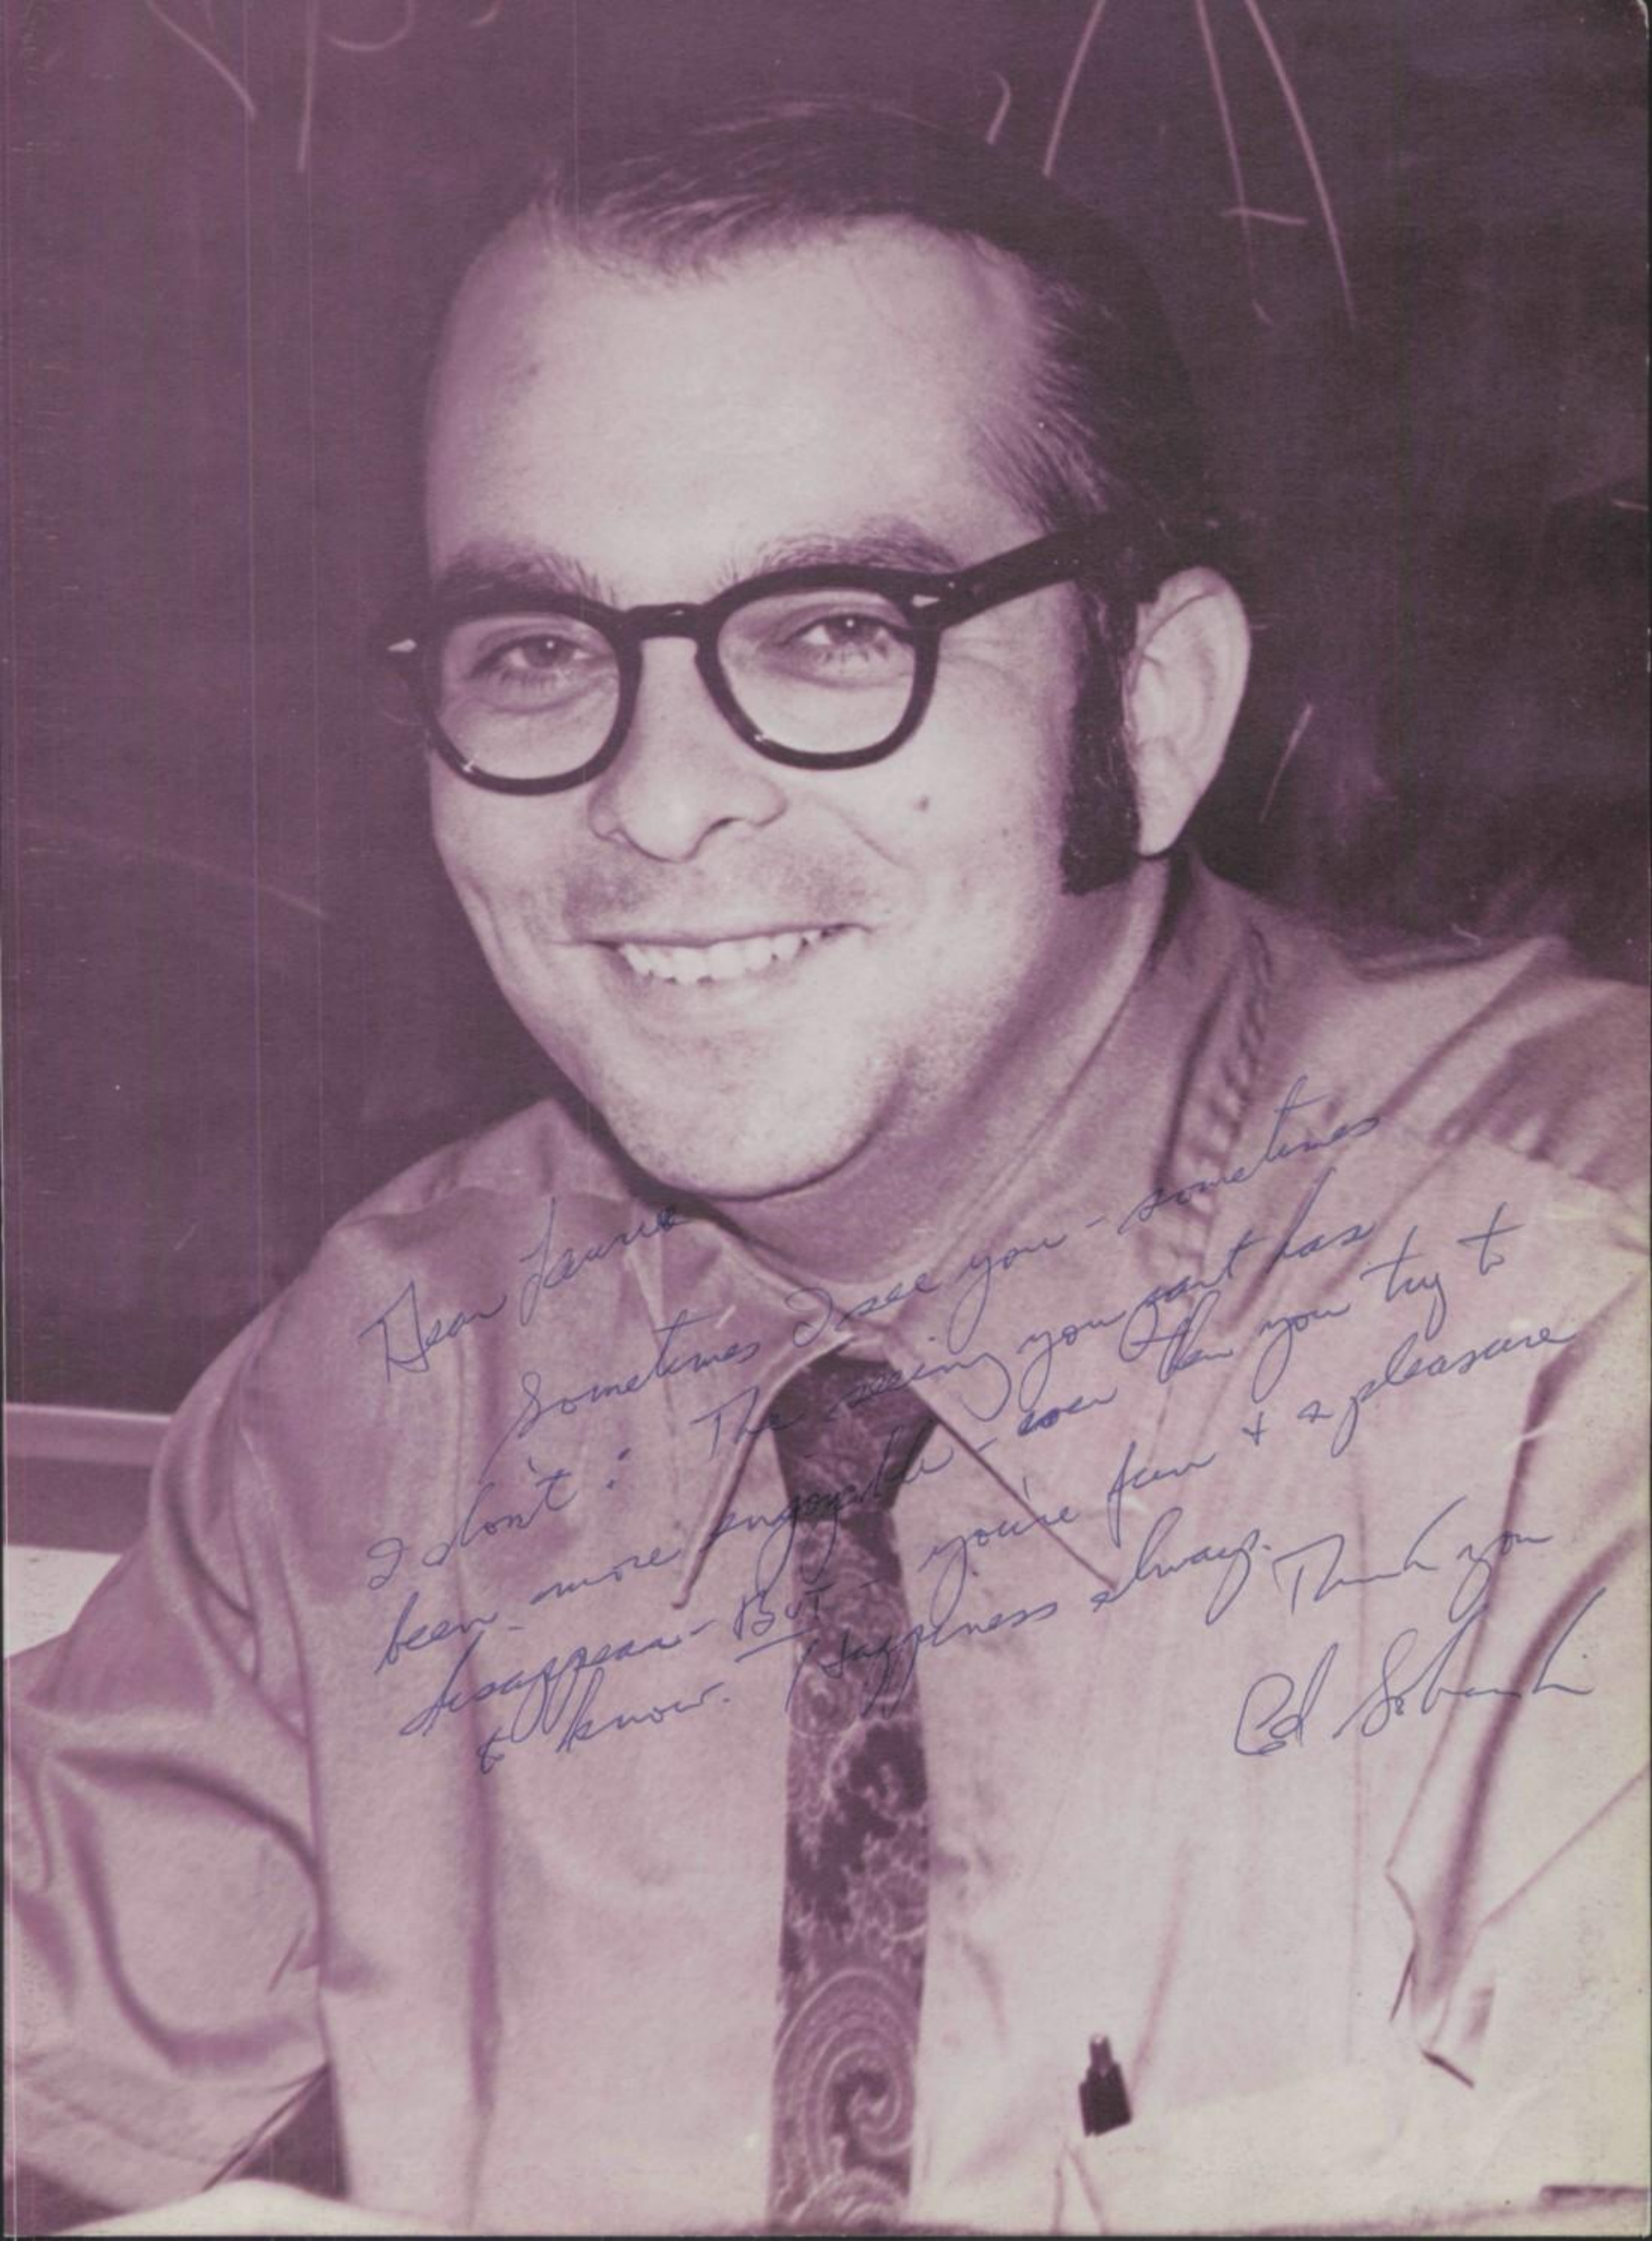
"You have always been our friend, but more important you have let us be your friend too."

Mr. Sobanski, these six years have been rough for the class of '72 (as our class adviser, you know that quite well). You have led us forward and for this we thank you.

Thanks is easy to say, but for you we also feel it. We feel the sense of achievement, accomplishment and pride that you have given us. From this pride, we became a class; a closeness evolved between us. For this we thank you.

Mr. Sobanski, you have always been our friend, but more important you have let us be your friend too.

It is hard to say good-bye to a friend and this is why we have dedicated this yearbook to you. So that you won't forget us and we won't forget you.



Dear Laurie
Sometimes I see you - sometimes
I don't - The seeing you part has been more enjoyable - even than you try to disappear - But - you're fun + a pleasure to know. Happiness always. Thank you
Ed Sullivan

Principal's Message

This interview presents an opportunity to represent the entire staff at Division, in extending our very best wishes for every possible success to the graduating class of 1972. Division will long remember your outstanding ability and unusual achievement in every phase of school activities. We trust your high school years have been instrumental in preparing you for a bright and promising future.

There are many challenges awaiting the capable and the zealous; so many areas to which a significant part of a future may be dedicated. The horsemen of the apocalypse still lurk on the horizon; indifference and inhumanity have entered the fabric of everyday lives.

It may be extremely difficult for any of you to individually achieve outstanding renown in his life time. Yet life can readily attain purpose through a reaffirmation of the faith and ideals upon which our country was founded; — freedom, justice and universal brotherhood.

Sharing your heritage with the living and transmitting it to the future can add reality to the American dream.

Each of you should play some significant role in eradicating "man's inhumanity to man". We feel certain the class of "72" will have a profound impact upon the future.

In Memory of Joe Kavanagh

The Tide Rises, The Tide Falls

— Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

The tide rises, the tide falls,
The twilight darkens, the curfew calls;
Along the sea — sands damp and brown
The traveller hastens toward the town,
And the tide rises, the tide falls.

Darkness settles on roofs and walls;
But the sea, the sea in the darkness calls;
The little waves, with their soft, white hands,
Efface the footprints in the sands,
And the tide rises, the tide falls.

The morning breaks; the seeds in their stalls
stamp and neigh, as in the hostler calls;
The day returns, but nevermore
Returns the traveller to the shore,
And the tide rises, the tide falls.

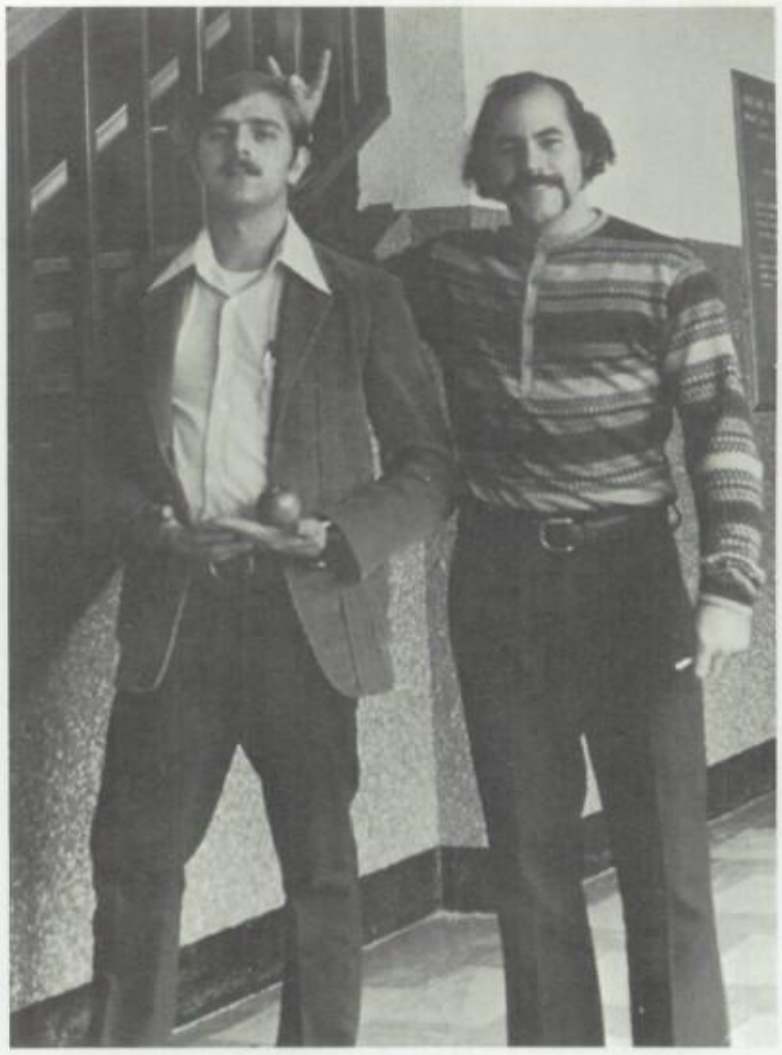
What's going on back there?



Room 222 . . . eat your hearts out.

Hey good lookin' watch ya got cookin'?

Number three is A, Number 4 is . . .

Mama mia that's a spicy cole slaw.

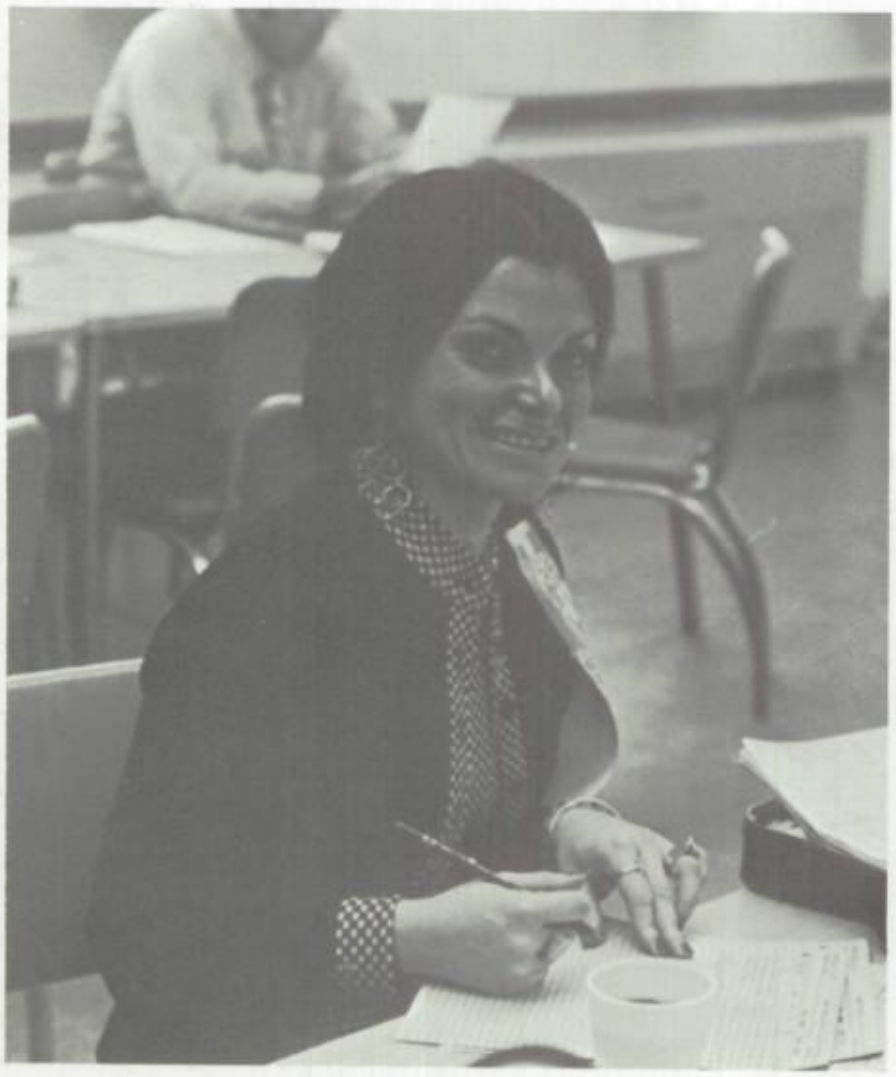
Oh yea . . . Well I was the 50th person to use that razor.

That Elmer's glue, wow!

Why do I get stuck in an all girls class?

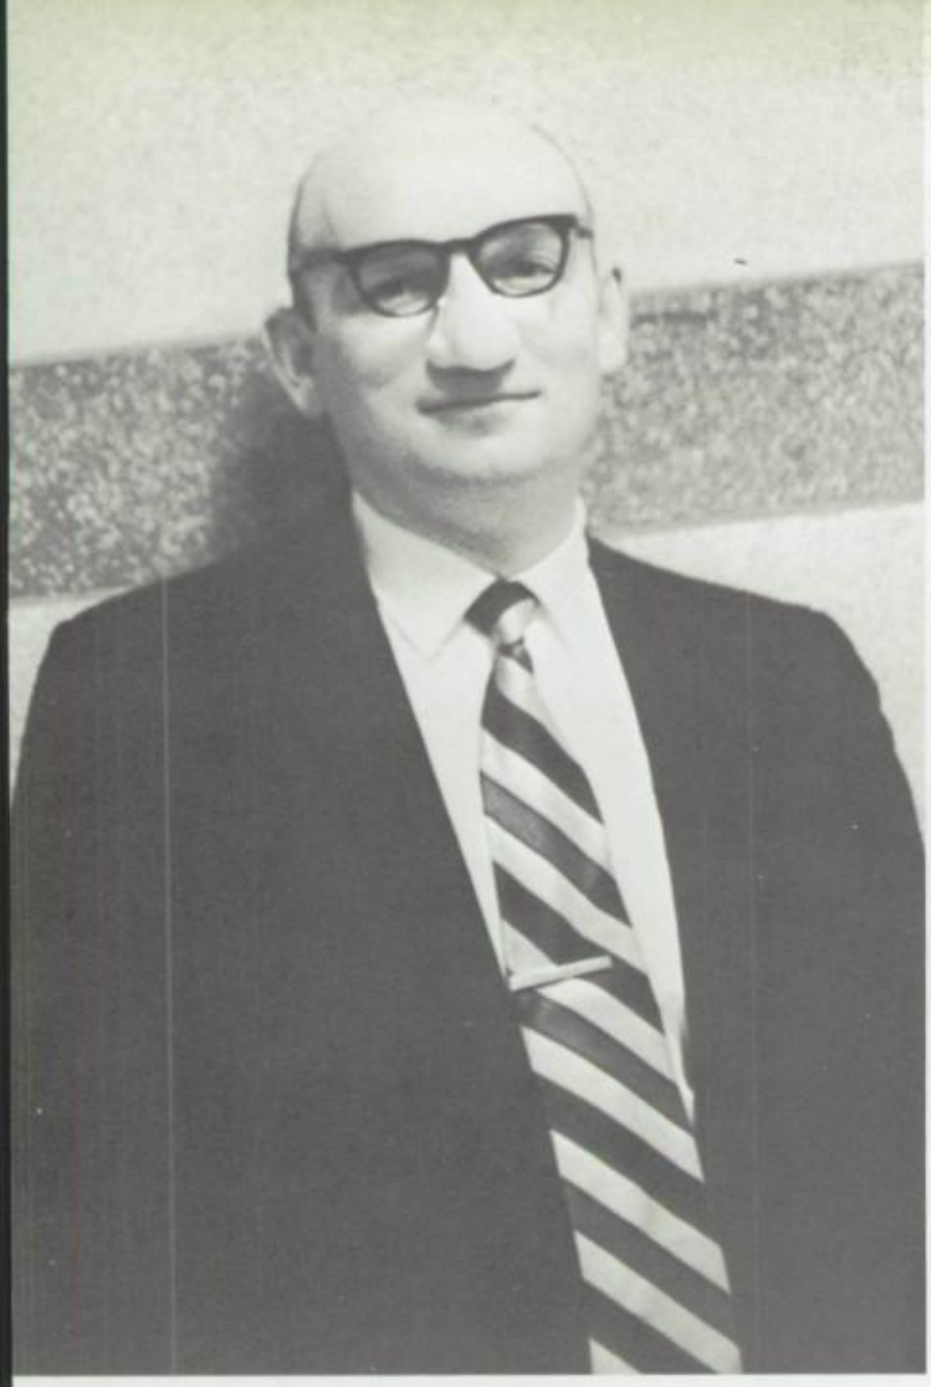
If I were only a few years younger.

I can't believe I ate the whole thing.



Are you scared?

Most Conservative?



No, I haven't seen Mr. Wright around either.

. . . and when Mr. Walsh puts the key into the ignition . . . BOOM!

"Another Centerfold for Playboy."

I'm not moving from this spot!

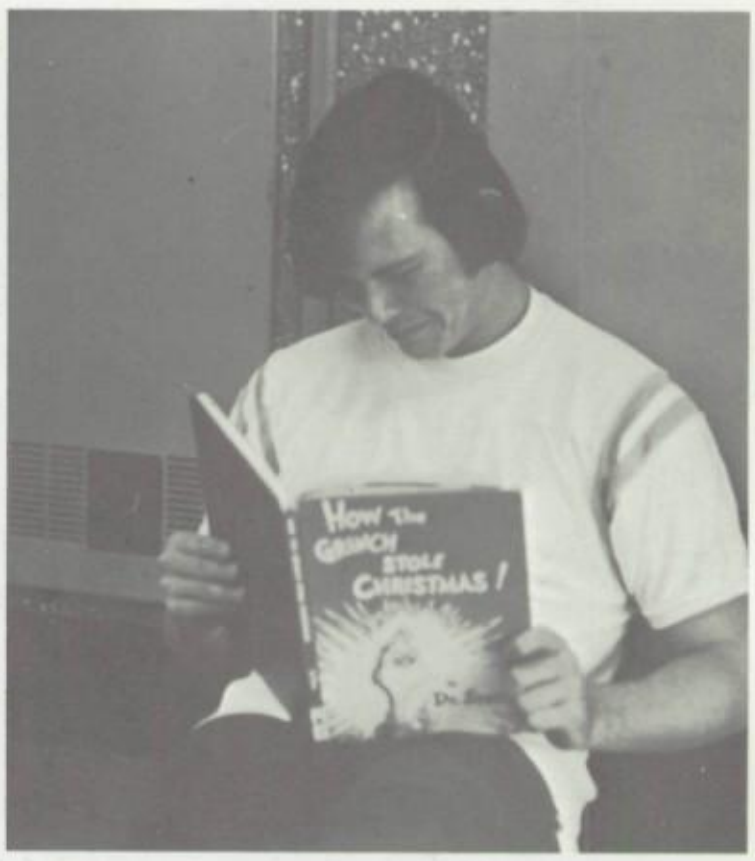
Don't you shake your finger at me!

Igor, I need you.

Sue Kolb??

Hey sweetheart, you've got to be kidding.

But, is this relevant?



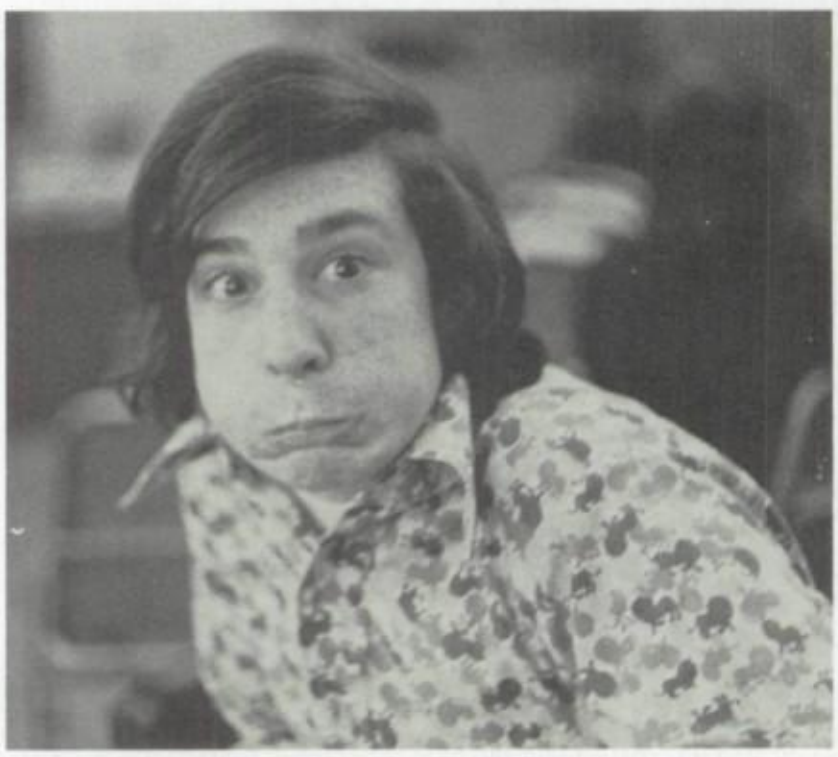
Hey "Ruba," how's that new advanced English course coming along?

All right guy's, when do we take over?

Here we go . . . Some more phony passes.

"Now let's see, which button?"

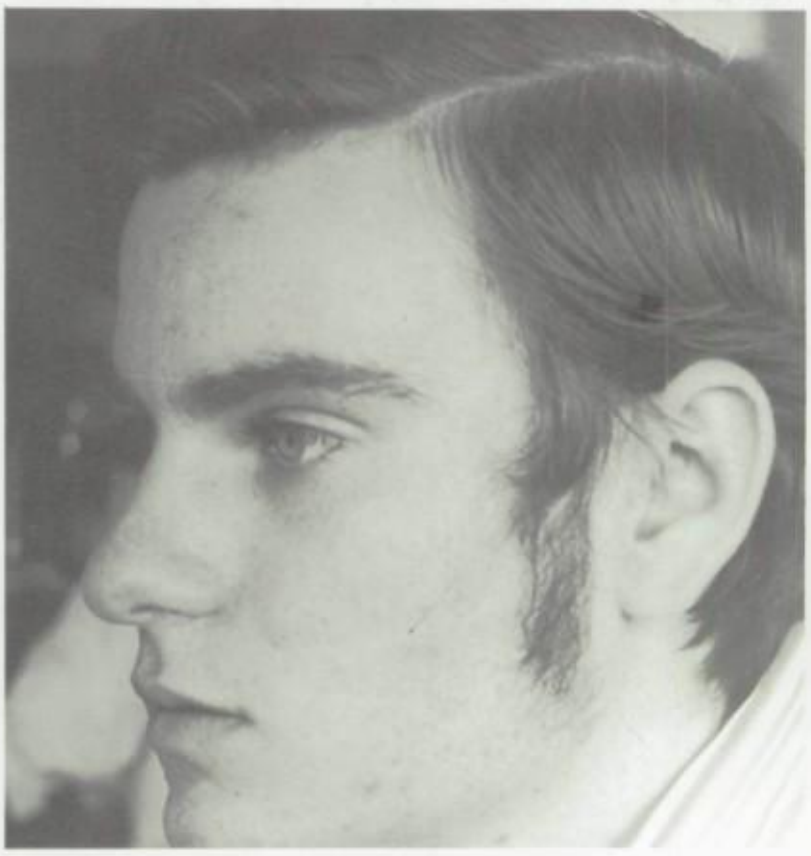
I'd stand up for her any day!



Mr. Aiello? What are you doing here?

Watch it Mr. Peyton, I'm aiming!

You should have seen the chemistry experiment we did today . . .



What day is this? . . . What time is it? . . .

Oh Cynthia . . . I think you split your pants!

Someday I'll find a boy who wants to go out for track.

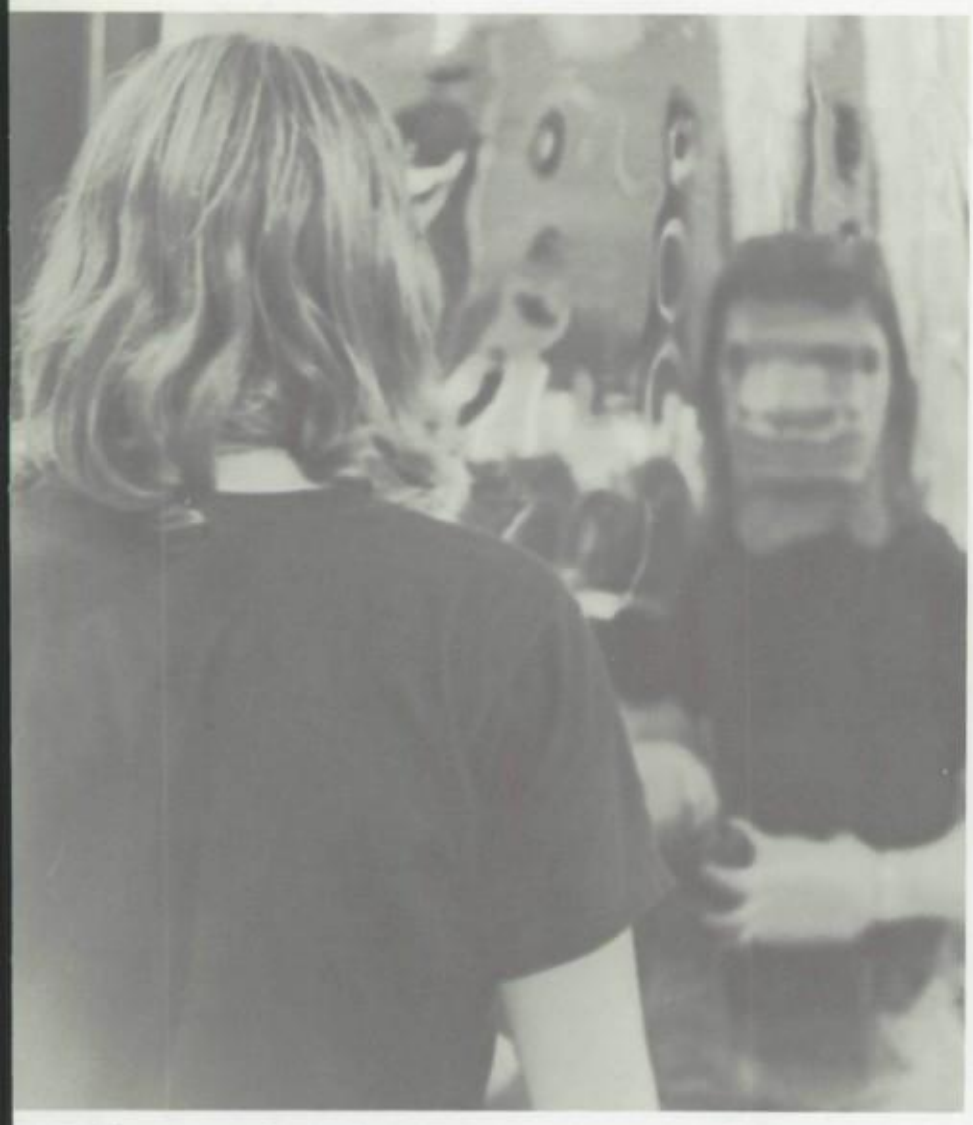
Division Avenue's solution to a fly swatter.

Get away from me Miss Rothenberg.

Oh no . . . who let that dog in . . . call the janitor.

"The Faculty Freaks."

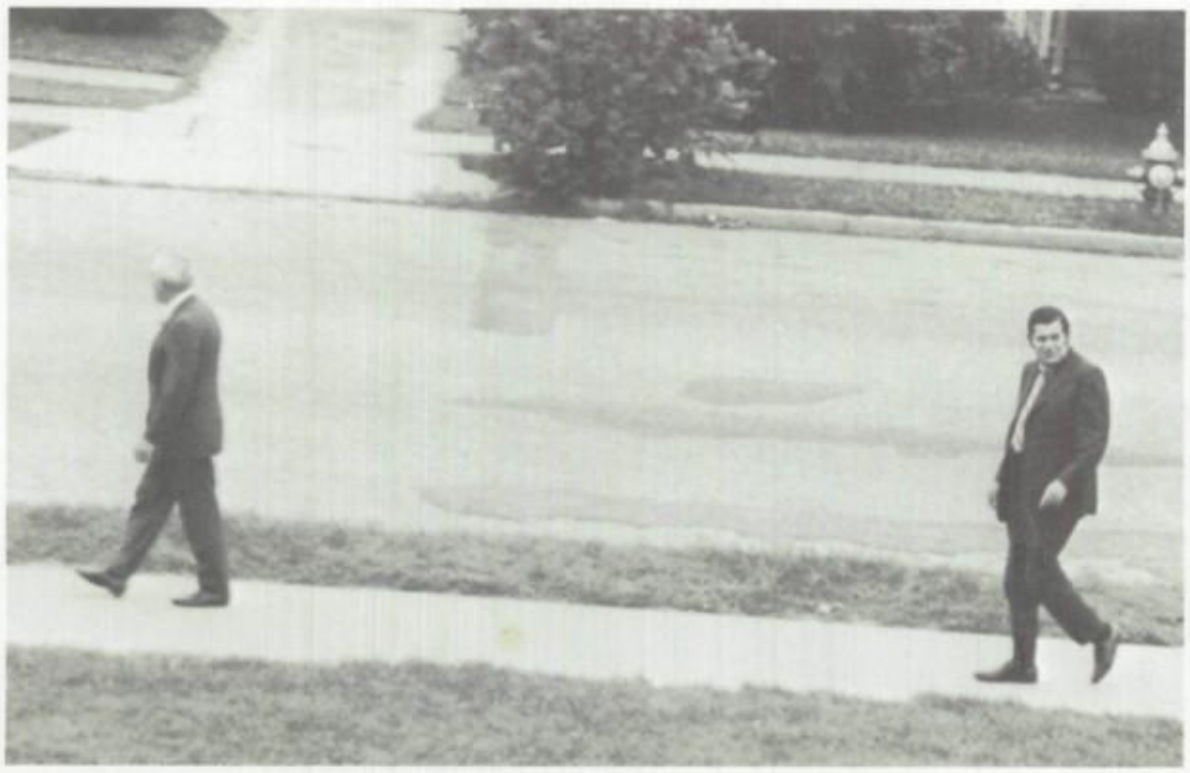


Reflections of my life.

Does that say what I think it says?

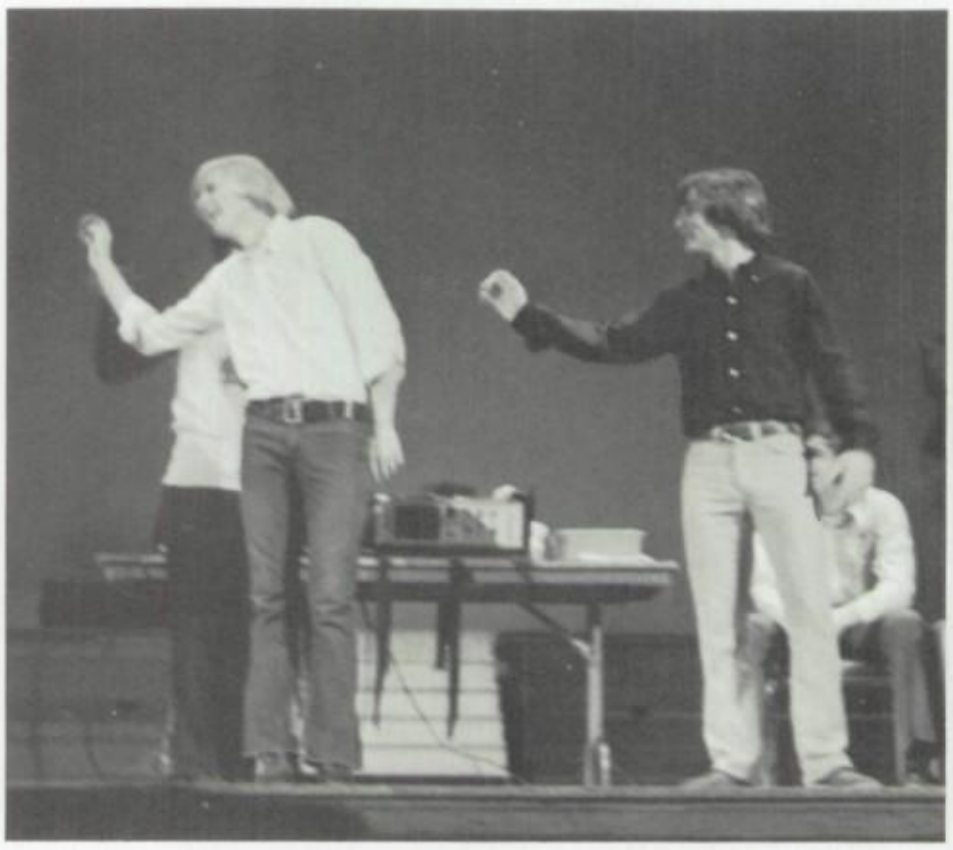
I want two of whatever he's eating.

And then he . . .



Pat, I'm sorry I didn't mean it.

Now I have a tattooed hand.



I'm a little teapot short and stout, here is my handle — here is my spout.

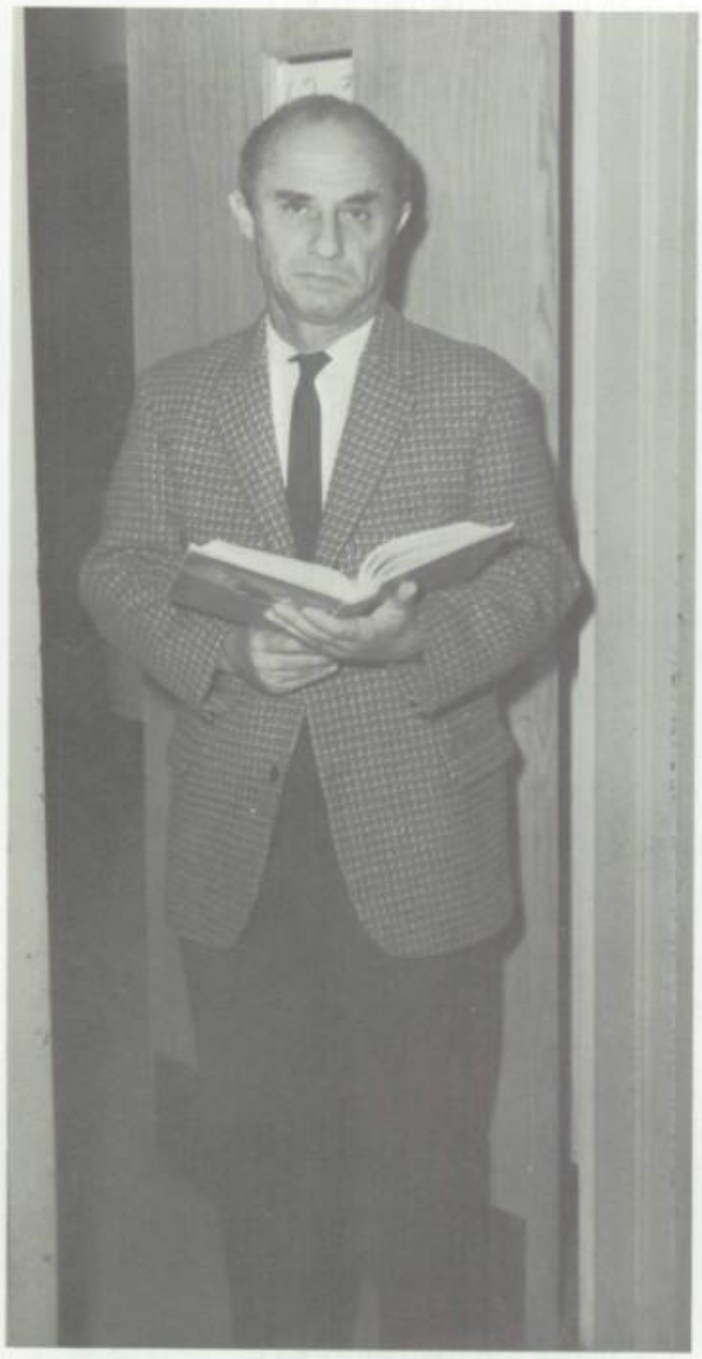
No Mr. Aiello, we really have a study hall this period.

How much do I hear for these two lovely gentlemen?

What you see is what you get!

I better not miss this one!

Ve are going to count to ten und if that car isn't over here by then . . .



"Dearly beloved: We are gathered here today . . . "

I don't need a bra!

O.K., Kids. The coast is clear.

$5 says I will.

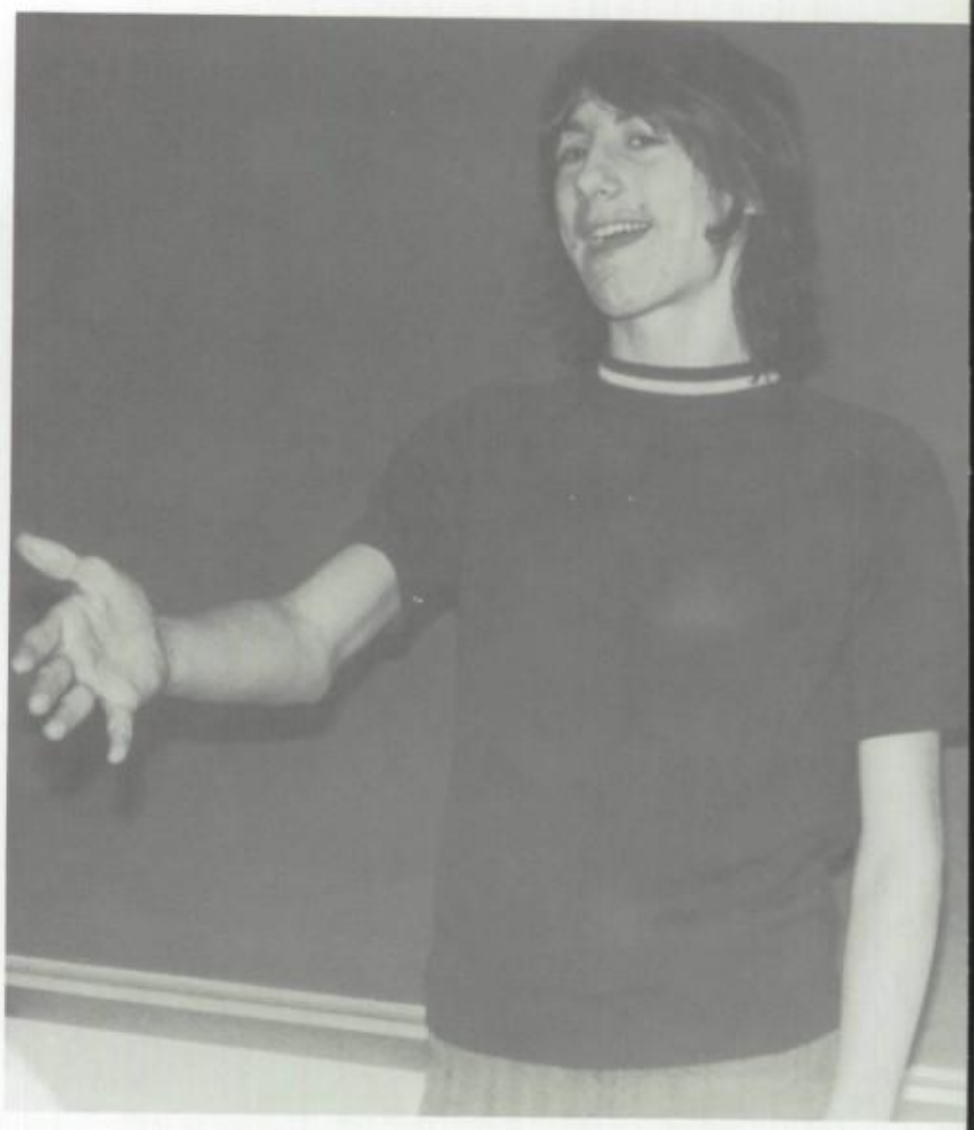
Have we shrunk or has it grown.

"Do little Elves really live in there?

I'll fix Mr. Peyton for not giving me a Blue-card!

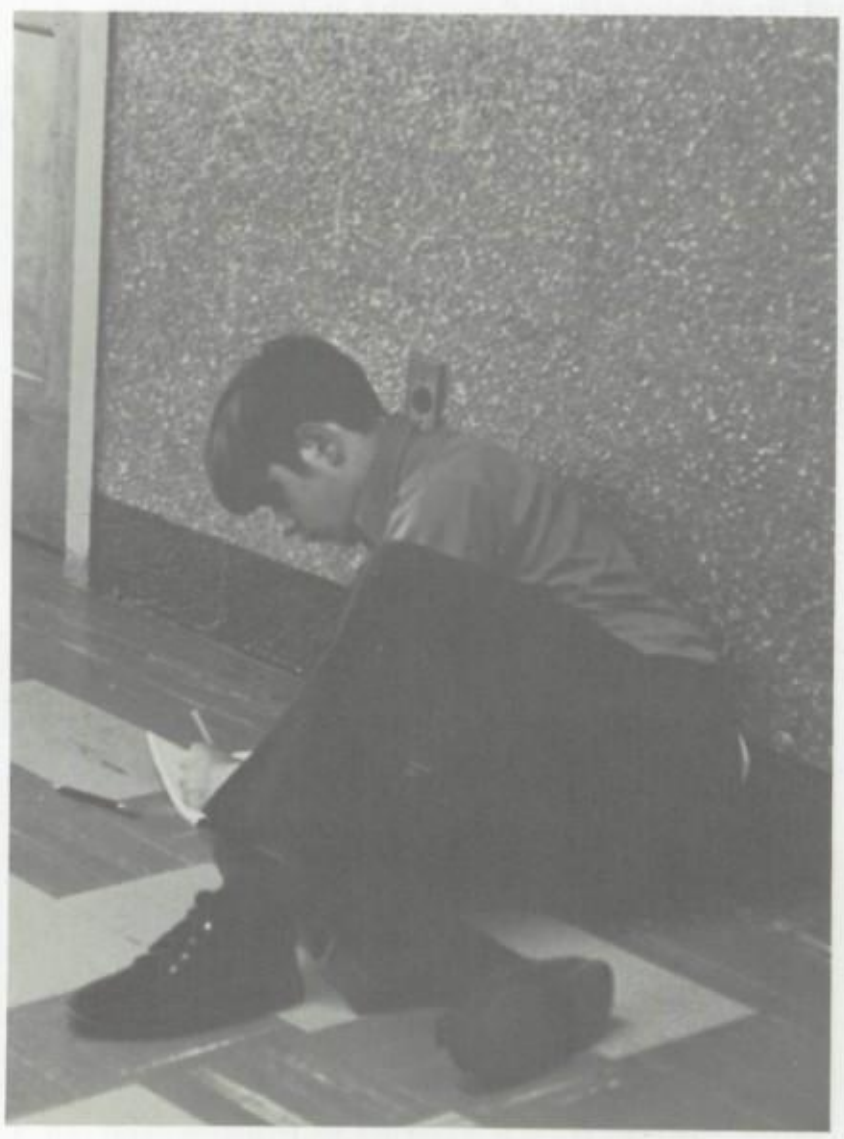
Oh God, who did it?

As the sun sets.



"And then . . . "

Cut my class, will you!



Just one more thing.

Where did the ball go?

When will prince charming come?

You've come a long way, baby . . .

Laurie → (that's not why I'm writing on this page!)

What can I say to someone I've grown up with for at least 10 years of my life? We played in the same sandbox, slid on the same "slip & slide," (and how we wrecked the lawn on the side of your house!) shared Barbie clothes and all the other stuff two best friends share. And now here we are graduating from high school together - I just don't believe it! You know that no matter where we go, what we do or who we marry we'll always be close. I think we know each other better than we know ourselves (sometimes). We've shared so many ideas and thoughts and most important we can discuss our problems (in detail) with each other and try to understand each other. That's something that everybody needs - a best buddy. You've grown as part of my family (also "Laurie, our fourth daughter" - as well as I've grown a part of yours. (Zella Eckenstein)

Never forget all the good times we've had - going to the beach with "Charley Tuna," going to the bank pictures, Florida (of course), Crank Funk concerts, hanging around the green (when we first did - the good old days) and most important all the Christmas', New Year's Eves, 4th of July's (Billy Koch), birthdays, and Passover Seder's (yum) we've spent together.

We have so much in common Laurie, especially boy problems. But they say we'll grow out of it and in time we'll be happy. I'll sure as hell hope so because I'm sick of this SHIT! (and I'm sure it's pouring out of your ears too!) Be good and if you can't be good be careful — Love your sister,

"Where's my good old gang done gone?"
I heard a sad man say.
I whispered in that sad man's ear,
"Your gang's done gone away."

Dear Laurie,
I'll always remember
you as that funny
little girl with the weird tongue. I'm glad
I got to know you so well
this year. I hope we still see each other through the years to come. Keep cool &
the best of luck!
Take care (as ever)
Susan

Dear Laurie,
Had many good times over your house these years. Like the time I broke your red rocker in the back yard or the time we all lite our moccasins on fire with lighter fluid. Best of luck in the future you'll really be missed.

Love,
The Grand
Duke
